A musical score for a lute chord in F major, labeled as the ordinary chord of 11 voices. It consists of two staves. The upper staff has five lines and contains a series of notes on the first, second, and third lines, each labeled with a lowercase 'a'. The lower staff has a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (Bb), and an octave sign (8) below the staff. It contains a series of notes on the first, second, and third lines, each labeled with a lowercase 'a'. The notes are arranged in a sequence that corresponds to the notes in the upper staff.
